Required:

Provide three approaches for auditors to understand the organisation's internal control.

(3 marks)

b) In deciding which audit procedures to use the auditor can choose from eight broad categories of evidence which are called types of evidence. Every audit procedure obtains one or more types of audit evidence.

Required:

Identify and explain each of the eight types of audit evidence and give one example for each type of audit evidence. (12 marks)

c) When auditing the client's company, the external auditor should be familiar with the proper design and use of documents and records in order to access the internal control reliability. Assume you are an auditor and you are currently auditing Lappy Sdn. Bhd. You have identified several issues while performing the audit. Sarah the clerk who handles the client's files went for one-month unpaid leave while the customer invoices are not arranged in a file accordingly. It was a messy situation and you are unable to track the invoices.

When you requested for the invoices from the other colleagues they were unsure about it as Sarah was the only one who handles the documentation part. While auditing the customer payment documentation you also realise that resit was not issued immediately to customers who made payment. Resit were issued to customer long after payment is received. Another very obvious issue you notice was that most the internal documents were without signature or sign of approval by relevant personnel.

Required:

As an auditor, provide five suggestions to Lappy Sdn. Bhd. on improving the control over documents and record keeping.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT To the Board of Directors and Shareholders, Megah Berhad

We have audited the accompanying Statement of Financial Position of Megah Berhad as at 31st December 2017 and the related statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the year ended and the related schedules listed in the accompanying index. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

The company had significant deficiencies in internal control, including the lack of detailed records and certain supporting data which were not available for our audit. Therefore, we were not able to obtain sufficient evidence in order to form an opinion on the accompanying financial statements including whether the inventory at 31st December 2016 (RM200,000) was stated at lower of cost or market, or whether the deferred subscription revenue (RM85,000) is an adequate estimate for the applicable liability, as discussed in Notes 3 and 18, respectively.

Required:

Write the auditor's opinion to accompany this portion of the audit report.

rt. (4 marks)
(Total: 20 marks)

QUESTION 5

a) Audit objectives are met by auditors obtaining sufficient appropriate audit evidence to support all management assertions in the financial statements. An audit process has four specific phases:

Plan and design an audit approach

Perform tests of controls and substantive tests of transactions

Perform analytical procedures and tests of details of balances

Complete the audit and issue an audit report

Required:

Explain in detail the summary of audit process for every phase as stated above.

(10 marks)

b) Inventory is often the most difficult and time consuming part of many audit engagements because inventory is generally a major item on the balance sheet and often the largest item making up the accounts included in working capital.

Required:

Explain the five parts of the audit of the inventory and warehousing cycle.
